OUT WITH HARRIMAN

Noted Railroad Magnate Is Now In Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—E. H. Harriman and party are due to arrive late today. With the party are Julius Kruttschnitt, vice-president and director of maintenance and operation of the Harriman lines, and General Superintendent H. V. Platt.

Hurrying from San Francisco to meet Mr. Harriman for an important conference involving changes in the management of the Harriman lines and the New York Central and Illinois Central, are E. E. Calvin, general manager of the Southern Pacific in San Francisco, J. T. Harahan president of the Illinois Central and J. P. O'Brien, vice-president of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company.

It has been said that Mr. Calvin is to leave the Southern Pacific to accept the general managership of the Illinois Central and that O'Brien will go from Portland to San Francisco to succeed Calvin. Southern Pacific officials both here and in San Francisco do not credit this report and point out that it would be no promotion for Mr. Calvin. It is not denied that Mr. Calvin may go east. But railroad men are inclined to believe he will take the place vacated by Harahan as president of the Illinois Central should the last named go with the New York Central, as is reported. Important developments and changes are expected to result from the conference here.

REFERRED TO "T. R."

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Man eating tigers and wild elephants to whose ferocity thousands have paid the penalty of death in British India, lately, have become so dangerous that they have proved the chief destroyers of the beautiful forests of that country, according to American Consul General William H. Michael of Calcutta. Moreover, the extinction of these wild beasts has become a problem to the government officials. Heavy rewards are paid for the destruction of the tigers, but the elephants are under the protecting wing of the government and are thereby shielded from harm.

CENTENNARIAN TALKS

NEW YORK, March 13.—Mrs. Franklin D. Cottle who celebrated her 100th birthday yesterday, took an automobile ride and remained up until 1 A. M., without showing any apparent fatigue, despite the excitement of the day. Speaking of her long life, Mrs. Cottle said to a young woman interviewer: "I never lived by rule. I ate what I liked, wore what I liked and lived a Christian life. Have the styles changed much? I wore a coal scuttle shaped hat such as they are wearing now to a wedding sixty years ago. I don't want the ballot. Men have run the government to suit me 100 years and I guess I can trust them for the rest of my stay."
